PERSONALS.

J. H. Brand, of New York, is at the Palmer.

W. A. Cunningham, of St. Louis, is at the Palmer.

Mrs. T. C. Ballard left last night for St. Louis.

Erve Albright, of Mayfield, was here last night.

W. T. Smith has gone to Chicago, where he will probably locate.

Mrs. Sam B. Gott and children are visiting in Mayfield.

Mr. Collins McGinniss went over to Crest Springs this afternoon.

H. B. Pierce and wife, and Mrs. A. D. Pierce, of Golconda, are here today.

Mr. Jerry Reaser, of Mayfield, was in the city today en route to Benton.

Mrs. R. R. McKering, of Princeton, is a guest of Mrs. Chas. Frederick.

Mrs. W. B. Weeks and children, of the city, have returned from a visit to Hopkinsville.

Mrs. M. C. Vaughan and daughter, Miss Pauline, have returned from a visit to Louisville.

Justice J. P. Winchester is still ill, and unable to be out. He has been laid up for several days.

The Elks informal reception will take place tonight at Elks' hall, beginning early. A large crowd is expected.

Misses Sylvia, Opal and Jessie Downs left this morning on the Joe Fowler to visit friends and relatives in Indiana.

Mr. N. Henson, of Benton, agent for Downs & Son, was in the city today, and reports a nice trade in the marble business.

Messrs. Ed Baker and Henry Hans, of the city, have returned from their sojourn to Hot Springs, Ark., where they were much benefited in health.

The marriage of Mr. Phillip Johnson, formerly of the city, to Miss Annie Latta Law, at Bartow, Fla., took place yesterday, as previously announced.

Dr. J. T. Reddick left this morning for Jackson, Tenn., to attend as an honorary guest the state medical convention of Tennessee. He will remain a paper today, and return tomorrow.

The marriage of Miss Beas Wilford to Mr. Lindsay Hale will take place tomorrow at high noon at Mayfield, in accordance with previous announcements.

The Shakers club will meet with Mrs. Schwartzberg on Friday afternoon at 2:30, when the fourth act of Julius Caesar will be discussed. A full attendance of members is desired.

Mr. Will H. Foster was married last evening at Atoka, Tenn., to Miss McRee, of that place. The groom is son of Dr. J. D. Foster, of the city, and is a well known and popular young railroad conductor. Mr. Albert Foster, of the city, attended the wedding.

Grand Commander Brooks, of the Golden Cross, arrived this afternoon from Sturgis, and was met at the depot by the reception committee. Four of the other officers arrived last night, and were taken in charge by the local Sir Knights. The banquet of the order, together with a conference of degree, will take place tonight.

FORGERY CASE.

Grand Jury Today Investigating One from the County.

The grand jury is today investigating a case of forgery from the county against Ed Stevenson, colored. It is alleged that he had been working for Mr. S. R. Jackson, of the Woodville vicinity, and was given an order on Mr. Armour Gardner, of the city, for $1.

He is alleged to have raised the amount to $5 and brought the order to Mr. Gardner, who cashed it. That was last month, and Stevenson has not been seen since. It is likely that an indictment will be found in time soon and steps taken to apprehend the accused.

ALLEGED HORSE THIEF.

George Earnheart Arrested in Tennessee on the Charge.

Marshall Collins received a telephone message from Marshall Walker, of Fulton, yesterday afternoon, stating that George Earnheart, the young man alleged to have hired a horse and buggy from Prince, the Fulton liveryman, had been arrested at Martin, Tenn., and would be brought to Paducah to be tried. That is all he said, and Marshall Collins does not know when or from where the prisoner will be brought. He will likely not consent to come from Tennessee without a requisition, and in this event it will be some time before he is arraigned in a local court of justice.

It is understood that Fulton people have declined to prosecute him, but he can be prosecuted here for obtaining money under false pretense, having claimed that the horse he sold was his own, while it proved to be a stolen one.

AN UGLY CASE.

Is That Against Solomon A Warrent Has Been Issued.

A warrant was issued today against J. R. Solomon, the man mentioned in the police court report as being arrested for taking undue liberties with several small girls whom he was holding up in order that they might see the show.

According to the authorities, the case is one of the ugliest of its kind ever known here. It is generally regretted that the charge cannot be proved very much like his guilt is clear. The case will be tried in the police court tomorrow.

THE BOOK AUCTION.

Owing to the increased demand for standard books, and believing that there are yet many people in this city who are anxious to take advantage of the opportunities offered at the Book Auction, we have concluded to continue the sale until Saturday night. There will therefore be auction sales of books every day this week at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 7 p.m.

DESERVES PATRONAGE.

Mr. J. Will Smith, the well known veterinary surgeon, has established an office at Glauber's stable, and will be pleased to make examinations free of charge. All who have work of this character should call on him. As an expert his equal cannot be found in Paducah.

MR. FISHER IMPROVING.

It will be pleasant news to the many friends here of Attorney J. M. Fisher, of Benton, who is ill of pneumonia, to learn that he is greatly improved, and will likely soon be out again.

DEATH IN THE POOR HOUSE.

The remains of Eugene Sims, who died yesterday in the poor house, were buried this morning in the county graveyard. The deceased had been an inmate for some time.

Bicycle Cheap.
A new, high grade bicycle, will be sold cheap for cash. This is a big bargain. Call at Six office.

Harling and Miller have made some good sales this week, but good goods always sell.

Dr. Edwards, Ear, Eye, Nose and Throat Specialist, Paducah, Ky.

CALLAWAY'S LATEST TWINS.

A note of Will Ray found twins the other day, one being a horse colt and the other a mule, says the Murray Times. The boys John Reid's want. What Callaway will produce next no man can tell.

KENTUCKY PRESS BOYS.

The itinerary of the Kentucky Press Association has been completed by Secretary Morgenthauser for the annual trip in July and is as follows:

Most in Cincinnati Saturday, July 4, at 10 a.m., leave the Queen city for two and one-half hours later, arrive at Detroit at 8:45 that evening and depart by steamer at 11 p.m., reaching Mackinac, July 4, at 6 p.m., and stay at the hotel. Leave Mackinac on Thursday, July 7, at 2 p.m., and get to Detroit on return on July 8, at 4 p.m., and depart from Detroit at 10 p.m., arrive at Toledo on Friday, July 9, at 10 p.m., and catch train at Toledo; arrive at Cincinnati Saturday, July 9, at 7 a.m.

THE COURTS.

But Little of Public Interest in Either of the Courts Today.

The Ordinary Routine of Business Fills Up the Time in the Circuit Court.

In the circuit court, the case against Thos. Carroll, for malicious shooting, was given to the jury this afternoon.

At press time an effort was being made to get up the Al Winfrey malicious cutting case.

Several cases were called and set today.

N. J. Newman filed suit against J. H. Newman and others to settle the Melind. Huggins estate.

A. S. McConeil filed suit against R. G. Pell and others to settle the title to property in Oak Grove.

J. H. Matthews and others sue the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet company for alleged failure to deliver some lumber on the Clyde. The amount is $190.

W. T. Ashmeas A. N. Vea of $382 on a note.

The case against Steve Jordan for housebreaking, was dismissed.

The cases against H. M. Newport and Fred Houser for selling liquor to minors were dismissed.

The case against Mr. Enoch Linn and J. J. Earnhart, charged with a breach of the peace, was called in the police court this morning, also the case against Mr. Linn for carrying a pistol concealed and for pointing it at Earnhart. The evidence developed the fact that the men had a difficulty in the front part of Lang's drug store day before yesterday, and Mr. Linn drew a pistol. It was taken away from him by his antagonist, and Officer Potter was called in to arrest them both. Linn was fined $25 and costs in the first case, and sentenced to ten days in jail and in the other was fined $20 and costs.

Isabella Barton, colored, and her son, Philip, were in the police court this morning charged with a breach of the peace. The woman was charged with having drawn a hatchet on Mr. Charles Wortham, who had followed her boy home to call him to account for striking his little child with a brick. The warrant was dismissed, and the boy was fined $5 and costs for throwing stones in the city limits.

Frank Bunker and John Herring, colored, were charged with vagrancy in the police court this morning. The evidence was heard and they were both sentenced to thirty days on the chain gang.

J. R. Solomon, a paper hanger was informed by the court that he would be warranted for a breach of the peace. The charge against him is a very ugly one. While at the horse show yesterday, he volunteered to hold two or three different children up so they could see the show, and then took liberties with the little girls. He denies the charge and if the case is proven, he will not doubt be given the full extent of the law. The man claims to be from Cairo, and does not belong to the show. The girls in the case are all from six to ten years old.

J. J. Earnhart was fined $1 and costs for a breach of the peace. There seemed to be some doubt in regard to the case for presenting a pistol, and the case against Mr. Linn was left open.

Dick Brown, a hoot logger, who had been in the business since whiskey was voted out of Hickman, was arrested last night and brought to the city by Deputy P. S. Marshall Laker.

He was this morning tried and held over, going to jail.

Franklin, the man with Gentry's show, charged with stealing a watch, was arrested this afternoon by Officer Orr.
